AN ARTS AND HERITAGE EVENT IN MILTON KEYNES

Celebrating the work of the Arts Society North Bucks (TASNB) and their group of volunteer Church Recorders.

Venue: St James' Church, New Bradwell MK13 0BP

Date: Wednesday 20th MARCH 2024: 10:15 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Firstly: an example of our high-quality monthly TASNB lectures:

Janet Gough, OBE, a respected expert on all aspects of church architecture and history, will speak about 'What have the Victorians ever done for us? – Sir George Gilbert Scott and Victorian church architecture', exploring a wide range of Victorian craftsmanship.

A national volunteering Award from Marsh Charitable Trust will then be presented to one of our Church Recorders team, Judith Jeffcoate.

After lunch, David Medcalf the Chair of Church Recording Society will introduce the Society, describing the work of its volunteers, who research & record the artistic and historic contents of churches.

Then in the afternoon you can learn from church recorders how they go about this fascinating work: new recruits are welcome!

ALL WELCOME Entry by ticket £5 each.
