Reflection

A very Happy New Year in Bradwell to you all, and welcome to the second Sunday now of Christmas, and also to Epiphany season - where instead of a focus on the Wise Men we are led to delve deeper into the significance of 'the Word made flesh' in John chapter 1. Remember to have an epiphany is really to bring profound revelation, and it seems to me that in describing our text this week further descriptive 'r-words' like 'rescue', 'redemption', 'restoration' are all noted by commentators, without necessarily using the r-word that is actually in our Gospel, which is 'received'. 'To all who received Him'. My thought would be that all of these other descriptive r-words actually point to the original; ie. what it means to truly receive Christ. In this New Year and with our latest set of resolutions (...another 'r-word'!) let's together take note of how we are doing that. God Bless, Phil

THIS WEEK IN TIMES PAST

1642 AD Charles I was an absolutist and having suspended Parliament in 1629 so he could rule alone, was forced to recall it in November 1641 so he could obtain more money. Parliament passed a motion that made a plea for Charles to act more reasonably, Charles was affronted and on the 4th January he arrived in Parliament with a considerable force of 400 soldiers determined to arrest the ringleaders of the motion. They had fled, Charles demanded the Speaker tell him where they were, The Speaker William Lenthall replied, "May it please your majesty, I have neither eyes to see, nor tongue to speak, in this place, but as the house is pleased to direct me". It was the first time that a speaker had declared his allegiance to the liberty of parliament rather than the will of the monarch. Charles' intended show of strength having failed, he left London less than a week later, and within months the country was plunged into civil war.

PAUSE FOR THOUGHT from Mike

There is a tide in the affairs of men, which taken at the flood, leads on to fortune. Omitted, all the voyage of their life is bound in shallows and in miseries. On such a full sea are we now afloat. And we must take the current when it serves or lose our ventures.

Julius Caesar, Act IV, Scene 3

QUIZ set by Mike

Q. Which animal can turn its head 180 degrees?

Answer: A Praying Mantis

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, in the birth of your Son you have poured on us the new light of your incarnate Word, and shown us the fullness of your love: help us to walk in his light and dwell in his love that we may know the fullness of his joy; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

CHRISTIAN SOLIDARITY WORLDWIDE from Beryl

Nicaragua Good news for Advent! Carmen and Lesbia have been released to house arrest. These two women (Roman Catholic lay leaders) were detained without reason on 10 Aug 2024. They were targeted as part of a wider crackdown on fundamental freedoms in Nicaragua. Their families had had no contact with them for nearly 16 months. But Carmen and Lesbia were among a small group of political prisoners released into house arrest on Saturday 29 Nov. While they are still not free, this is without doubt an improvement on solitary confinement in a maximum-security prison. Let's give thanks for this answer to prayer and continue to remember the prisoners this Christmas (Hebrews 13:3). We will not stop praying for Carmen and Lesbia, and many others like them, until they are fully free.
