Collect

Faithful Creator,
whose mercy never fails:
deepen our faithfulness to you and to your living Word, Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Psalm 116:1, 10-17

I love the Lord, for he has heard the voice
of my supplication;
• because he inclined his ear to me
on the day I called to him.

10 How shall I repay the Lord
• or all the benefits he has given to me?

11 I will lift up the cup of salvation
• and call upon the name of the Lord.

12 I will fulfil my vows to the Lord
• in the presence of all his people.

13 Precious in the sight of the Lord
• is the death of his faithful servants.

14 O Lord, I am your servant,
• your servant, the child of your handmaid;
you have freed me from my bonds.

15 I will offer to you a sacrifice of thanksgiving
• and call upon the name of the Lord.

16 I will fulfil my vows to the Lord
• in the presence of all his people.,

17 In the courts of the house of the Lord,
• in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.

Alleluia.

Romans 5:1-8

Results of Justification

5.1 Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. 3 And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, 4 and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, 5 and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

6 For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. 7 Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. 8 But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Matthew 9:35 & 10:1 to 8

The Gospel of Christ according to Matthew Glory to you, O Lord.

35 Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness.

36 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. 37 Then he said to his disciples,

'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; 38 therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.'

The Twelve Apostles

10.1 Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. 2 These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter; and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; 3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector;
James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;
4 Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

The Mission of the Twelve

5 These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, 6 but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." 8 Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ

Clergy Staffing Announcement

Rev Peterson Feital

SEP Church members should be aware that in view of the continuing uncertainty with the suspension of the Team Rector; the Oxford Diocese have agreed for our House for Duty minister; Rev Peterson Feital, to receive remuneration for two additional days employment with us each week at no extra cost to the parish share.

We are grateful to Peterson for the enthusiasm
he has brought into his unpaid role, and now his acceptance to work the additional days.
Peterson has indicated he is now generally available to the SEP Churches - Sunday to Thursday each week.

We look forward to meeting Peterson at

Poem for the summer

Look at the World by John Rutter

Look at the world, everything all around us:
look at the world, and marvel everyday,
look at the world: so many joys and wonders,
so many miracles along our way.

Praise to thee, O Lord, for all creation, give us thankful hearts, that we may see all the gifts we share, and every blessing, all things come of thee.

Look at the earth bringing forth fruit and flower;
look at the sky, the sunshine and the rain;
look at the hills, look at trees and mountains,
valley and flowing river, field and plain.

Think of the spring, think of the warmth of summer,
bringing the harvest before the winter's cold.
Everything grows, everything has a season,
till it is gathered to the Father's fold.

Every good gift, all that we need and cherish comes from the Lord in token of his love;
we are his hands, stewards of all his bounty;
his is the earth, and his the heavens above.

This poem was sung as an anthem at Sam's Licensing, June 2019
